DeGaulle Policy Brushed Aside
By New Boss

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, South Viet Nam's new military strong man, appealed today for Western support of his country's war against the Communists.

Ignoring French President Charles de Gaulle's proposal to neutralize Southeast Asia in a pact with Communist China, Khanh told the Saigon diplomatic corps he is confident the "Vietnamese people and the rest of the free world would continue material and moral support in the struggle against communism here."

Although repetition of the French proposal at De Gaulle's news conference in Paris Friday drew no official comment, relations between France and South Viet Nam remained seriously strained. Some sources predicted a break.

After the champagne reception, Khanh, 36, told newsmen a decision on his country's relations with Paris would be "extremely difficult."

In a cryptic style reminiscent of De Gaulle himself, the strong man added: "We shall handle our enemies and the friends of our enemies in our own way."

Khanh was far more blunt Friday. About the time De Gaulle made his statement in Paris, Khanh accused the French leader.

Cuba Said Persecuting Protestants

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Exiled Cuban church officials asked the World Council of Churches today to investigate what they called increasing persecution of Protestants in Cuba.

They cited newly imposed restrictions, harassment of pastors and closing of churches.

The Movement for Christian Action, headed by the Rev. Manuel Viera, exiled Methodist pastor now in Tampa, Fla., told the council in Geneva, Switzerland, that Protestants "have been persecuted, first in subtle and silent ways, later openly, and always in a systematic and implacable way by the Communist regime."

The Rev. Germain Rivas, information officer for the movement, said underground sources reported the Fidel Castro regime had just closed one of Cuba's largest Protestant churches, the Central Baptist in Santa Clara.

Under new Cuban regulations, unpublished but relayed to Protestant ministers, Rivas said, no person under 18 can become a church member, printed matter such as Bibles or church notices cannot be distributed, church groups must register as associations rather than as churches, lists of persons making church monetary pledge must be furnished the government, and religious activity outside churches is forbidden.

GOP Solon Scoffs At LBJ's Program

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—President Johnson is "playing fast and loose with the defense of the U. S. to make some election year hay," Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., said Friday night.

"Lyndon Johnson is being built as a can-do president, but what has he done?" Tower said in a Lincoln Day address. If "we offer a clear cut choice to the voters" next November, the Republicans can win, he said.

Defense cuts don't appear to be too serious, Tower said, "but what I'm afraid of is the idea of cutting defense spending for political advantage" and also for more welfare spending.

Newark Farmers Hailed For Milk Price Stand

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — The president of the National Farmers Organization, Oren Lee Staley, congratulated Newark area dairy farmers Friday for their "victory" in recent dealings with independent processors.

Speaking via a telephone-loudspeaker hookup, Staley addressed some 2,000 farmers at a rally at the George H. Eller farm north of here. He was scheduled to make a personal appearance, but fog in Corning, Iowa, where the NFO headquarters is located, prevented him from flying in.

Staley's congratulations were for successful efforts last month by dairy farmers to prevent four Newark processors from cutting milk prices from $4.60 to $4.40 per hundredweight. Protesting farmers dumped some 500 gallons of milk in the Licking River and another 50 gallons in front of one of the dairy firms.

Later, the dairies compromised and agreed to pay $4.50. And prior to Staley's talk Friday, NFO negotiators announced that the firms had agreed to pay Columbus milkshed prices of $4.55 per hundredweight in February.

Staley told the gathering that a nationwide holding action on milk, as well as other farm products, probably would be necessary in the future to force better market prices.

The NFO president urged dairy farmers to be ready to participate in a nationwide strike with only a few hours' notice. He said the holding action will be planned to surprise processors and catch them off balance.

When a milk holding action is called, farmers either will have to divert the perishable commodity to plants processing powdered milk, cheese and other manufactured dairy products, or let it go to waste. The diverted milk would sell for about a dollar less per hundredweight.

Cleveland Sees Racial Demonstration Continue

CLEVELAND (AP) — Civil rights demonstrators have spent a day and a night in the Cleveland school board headquarters, and some apparently plan to spend the whole weekend there.

More than 40 demonstrators launched the sit-in Friday morning in protest against the board's handling of Negro pupils transported daily by bus to classrooms in predominantly white schools.

Miss Ruth Turner, executive secretary here for the Congress of Racial Equality, said "We'll stay here as long as we can."

The demonstrators were told when the building was closed that they could remain inside but that anyone who left would not be permitted to return.

Food reportedly was smuggled in during the night.

The protestors represented CORE, the United Freedom movement and the Hazeldell Parents' Association.

Police were on hand, but there were no disturbances.

Meanwhile there were these other developments in the school integration crisis which triggered violent racial demonstrations near a school in the "Little Italy" area on Cleveland's East Side Thursday:

The city law department said it is studying proposals for an ordinance to ban picketing at public schools.

A UFM official said plans were being made for a boycott of three schools involved in the dispute if the board fails to satisfy demands for immediate integration of Negro pupils transported to those schools from Hazeldell school.

Mayor Ralph S. Locher rejected a demand by 13 white ministers for an investigation of the police department in the wake of the Little Italy violence.

The Rev. Charles W. Rawlings told the mayor: "Ministers have been spat upon and kicked; we've seen women punched and kicked while their plainclothesmen watched."

Mayor Locher told the ministers: "As sure as night follows day, when a large group begins picketing, another group will form I ask you not to increase this problem by picketing neighborhood schools."

The mayor said the complaints voiced by the ministers were at variance with reports from his safety officials.

The demonstrators represented CORE, the United Freedom movement and the Hazeldell Parents' Association.

Cyprus Plan Getting Nod

LONDON (AP)—Greece and Turkey informed Britain today they have accepted a U.S.-British plan to send an allied peace-keeping force to Cyprus. But the feuding Cypriots continued to hold out against the proposal.

Commonwealth Relations Secretary Duncan Sandys announced the acceptance after receiving Turkish Foreign Minister Feridun Cemal Erkin.

"He came to inform us that the Turkish government has accepted the plan," Sandys said. "The Greeks have already accepted."

As he left, Erkin said "I hope this idea will materialize very soon and that peace and tranquility will return to Cyprus."

Acceptance by the two governments — Atlantic Alliance partners estranged over the Cyprus dispute—helped strengthen Sandys' hand in trying to persuade the Greek and Turkish Cypriots to allow the allied force to police their turbulent east Mediterranean island.

The Turkish government announced its acceptance this morning in Ankara and Erkin's visit apparently was to formalize the decision.

Informed sources in Athens said Greece approved the plan after a four-hour emergency meeting of top cabinet ministers, military leaders and party heads summoned by caretaker Ioannis Paraskevopoulos.

The plan will have to be approved by the Greek Cypriot president, Archbishop Makarios. But Makarios has indicated he will veto it unless the force is answerable to the U.N. Security Council. The Western Allies are not likely to approve such a demand because this would give the Soviet Union a voice in the matter.

Under the U.S.-British plan, a neutral power will be asked to mediate the island's bitter intercommunal conflicts which have erupted into bloody clashes between Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

It also requests that there be no increase in the strength of Greek and Turkish troop contingents on Cyprus, and Greece and Turkey would waive temporarily their treaty rights to intervene unilaterally in Cyprus in an emergency.

Rights Debate Runs Smoothly

House Amendments To Come Monday

WASHINGTON (AP)—A civil rights debate that opened in unexpected serenity continues today with the bill's sponsors wondering how long the smooth sailing will last.

For nearly five hours Friday the explosive issue was discussed in generally calm and reasoned tones, with even a few jokes thrown in and applause generously afforded most speakers.

That took care of almost half the time allotted for debate, and House leaders hope to clear up the rest today so that real fighting over amendments can begin Monday. All next week has been set aside for considering amendments.

The prevailing calm did not cover up the sharp differences between North and South on the bill, which would provide broad new federal powers to combat racial discrimination. But despite their fierce objections, the Southerners took almost no advantage of the many opportunities in the House rules to delay the proceedings. Only once was debate interrupted by a demand that a quorum or majority be mustered.

Instead, speakers on both sides called repeatedly for calm debate, with Rep. Clarence J. Brown, R-Ohio, perhaps, putting it best when he said, "Let us have the House demonstrate to the world that on legislation of this importance we can act in the cool light of reason, fairly, justly, properly."

The House leaders expect the measure to be passed without being seriously amended by Feb. 11, then on to the Senate and a likely filibuster.

The postwar baby boom is not to bring its multitude of offspring into the marrying years. A girl born in 1957 is 7 years old this year.

The prospect of what this could mean to the U.S. population in terms of growth is impressive. Even with fewer babies per mother, there will be many more mothers, hence many more babies.

For instance, there were 11 million women in their 20s, the prime reproductive age, in 1960. By 1970, there will be 15 million women in this age group says the Population Reference Bureau. By 1980, 20 million.

If U.S. women have the 3.1 children they currently seem to plan on, it could push the U.S. population to 249 million by 1980, to 344 million by the year 2000, and to over a billion by year 2065.

The Ohioans met earlier at the Mayflower Hotel with officials of the Democratic National Committee and discussed ways to increase voter registrations.

Matthew A. Reese Jr., assistant to Democratic National Chairman John Bailey, presided over the session.

William L. Coleman, Ohio Democratic chairman, said the meeting was a training session on how to get voters registered and that similar meetings will be held back in Ohio.

"We are going to make an all-out effort in Ohio in 1964 to get the largest maximum number of people to vote," Coleman said.

Upon leaving with the money, officers said, he dropped a match into the gasoline, then ran down the street.

Store manager Lewis Swan said the flames kept pursuers from following the gunman.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS January bowed out Friday on an unseasonably mild note. But the U.S. Weather Bureau had dismal news concerning February, which wasn't even included in the first Roman calendar.

The Weather Bureau said in its 30-day forecast that February will be colder than normal in most portions of the country and that precipitation probably will be greater than usual on the Atlantic seaboard.

Spacecraft Due To Relay 3,000 Photos

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Scientists were jubilant today that the camera-packed Ranger 6 spacecraft was heading directly to an area on the moon under consideration for future astronaut landings.

If all goes well, Ranger 6 should hit the moon at 4:24 a.m. EST Sunday.

The spacecraft was launched from Cape Kennedy, Fla., Wednesday. Its course was corrected in midflight early Friday to aim it within a 150-mile-diameter circle on the flat plain known as Mare Tranquillitatis or the Sea of Tranquility.

In the last 10 minutes of flight, 900 miles before impact, six cameras aboard the spacecraft are supposed to start taking the first of more than 3,000 pictures.

The first photos, radioed in a steady stream to earth, should show surface areas of 151,000 and 16,800 square miles, taken by two wide-angle cameras. Areas of 9,480 and 1,950 square miles are the targets of four narrow-angle cameras.

Closeup pictures, just before impact, should show about half a square mile. The wide-angle cameras are to take 117 pictures each, the narrow-angle cameras 714 each.

Ranger 6's target area was chosen so cameras would catch sharp shadow from slanting sun rays. The shadows will help scientists determine how rough or smooth the surface may be, vital information for spaceman landings.

The United States Apollo Project is scheduled to put a man on the moon by the end of the decade.

The best previous moon pictures were from the Soviet Union's Lunik 3 in 1959. It shot 33-mm film, developed it, and radioed back about 30 pictures from distances between 43,498 and 4,375 miles from the moon.

Scientists at Jet Propulsion Laboratory, who built the Ranger series and are tracking and guiding No. 6, told newsmen Friday it appears the shot is nearly perfect. If it continues, a final course adjustment may not be necessary, they said.

Friday's midcourse correction — a 67-second blast from a 50-pound thrust rocket engine — put Ranger 6 almost precisely on the beam. Otherwise, the vehicle would have passed 2,000 miles to the left of the moon and curved to within 600 miles of its backside.

After the session, Shriver dropped by the White House to chat with Johnson and reports immediately began circulating that the President has decided to set up a new agency headed by Shriver to direct the administration's pledged war on poverty.

A comment from Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., that Johnson had indicated "somebody like Sargent Shriver" should direct it gave substance to the reports.

In talking with newsmen about the vice presidential nomination, Shriver said: "I've not decided to rule out anything or rule in anything. I came down here at the request of President Kennedy to try to do a job. . . . I've tended to my knitting as closely as possible. I've made a point of this. I'm not running for anything."

Would he run if Johnson asked him to?

"I don't worry about it. I don't think I'm the guy who's going to get asked," Shriver said.

Shy Shriver Nominates Inlaw Bobby for 'Veep'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver says he doesn't think he's going to get the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

And, with a bow in the direction of brother-in-law Robert F. Kennedy, he says the attorney general would be a "terrific" choice.

Shriver's comments on one of Washington's favorite guessing games — President Johnson's likely running mate — were elicited by newsmen Friday after he told the House Foreign Affairs Committee he needs $115 million to run the Peace Corps the next fiscal year.

Baby Crop Explosion Is in Offing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid declining birth rates, the United States still has a baby crop of over 4 million a year, say the population experts.

And the future is so potentially fertile they dread to think about it.

The U.S. Public Health Service reported this week that November yielded only 327,000 babies to Americans, the lowest November since 1953.

The Population Reference Bureau says the birth rate has declined some 14 per cent since 1957.

But these figures hardly tell the story.

The postwar baby boom is out to bring its multitude of offspring into the marrying years. A girl born in 1957 is 7 years old this year.

If U.S. women have the 3.1 children they currently seem to plan on, it could push the U.S. population to 249 million by 1980, to 344 million by the year 2000, and to over a billion by year 2065.

Weatherman Sees Dismal February

January bowed out Friday on an unseasonably mild note. But the U.S. Weather Bureau had dismal news concerning February, which wasn't even included in the first Roman calendar.

The Weather Bureau said in its 30-day forecast that February will be colder than normal in most portions of the country and that precipitation probably will be greater than usual on the Atlantic seaboard.

Once Around Roundtown

MRS. JOHN M. Musselman of Route 1 has received notes of thanks from Mrs. Lyndon Johnson and the Robert Kennedy family in appreciation of recent lament she penned as a memorial tribute to the late President Kennedy.

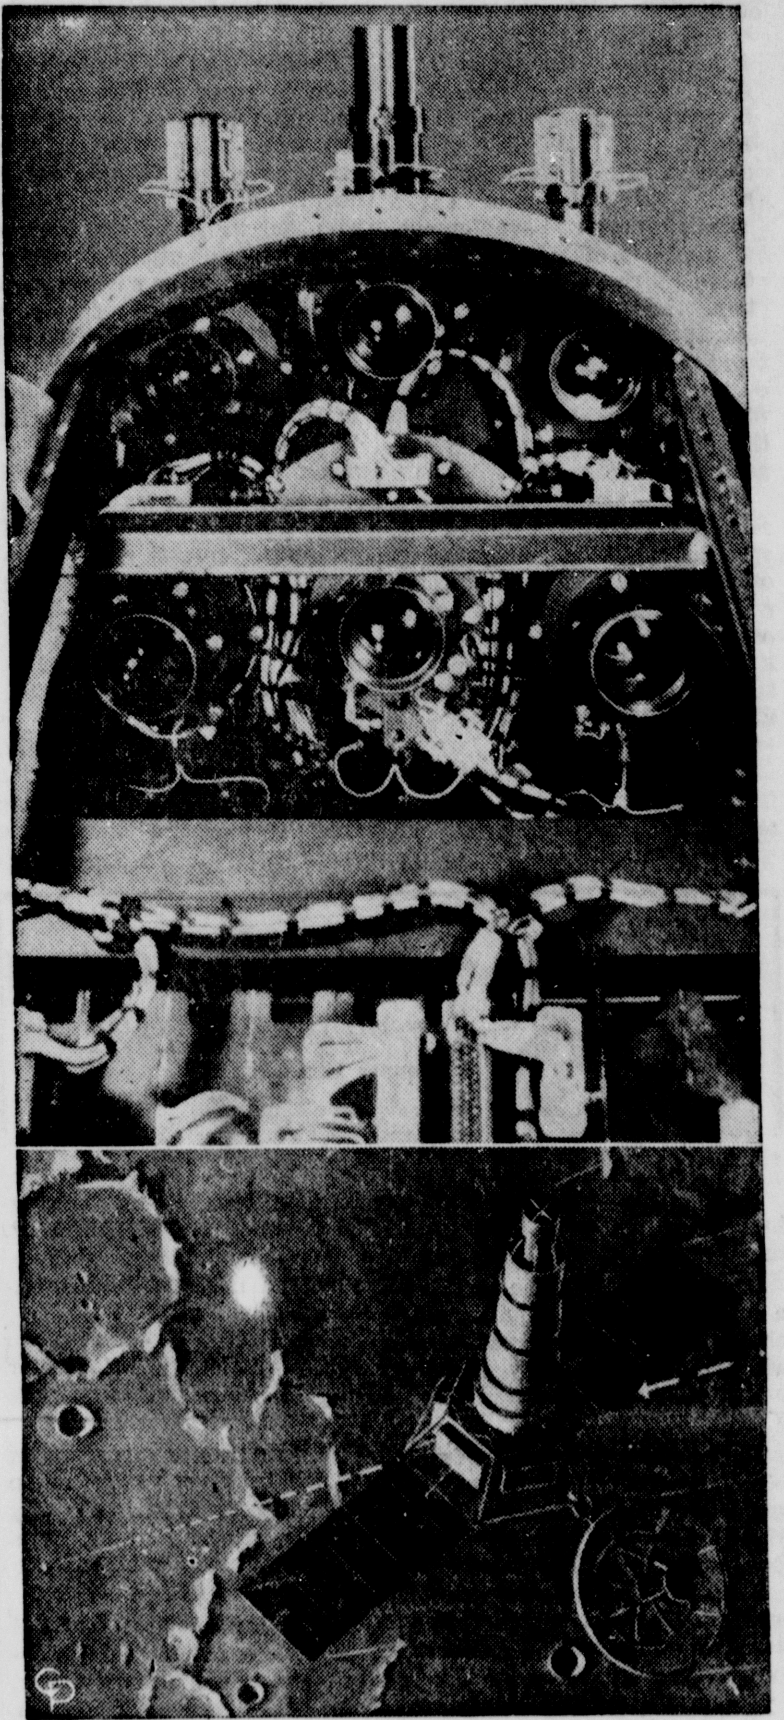

Mrs. Musselman had sent both families copies of the ode. Her thoughtful message was well-received.

The local office was open on Monday of each week. Persons affected by the closing may file claims at the nearest area office.

For area residents, the nearest office will probably be either Chillicothe or Columbus, depending where they live within the county.

Shy Shriver Nominates Inlaw Bobby for 'Veep'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver says he doesn't think he's going to get the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

And, with a bow in the direction of brother-in-law Robert F. Kennedy, he says the attorney general would be a "terrific" choice.

Shriver's comments on one of Washington's favorite guessing games — President Johnson's likely running mate—were elicited by newsmen Friday after he told the House Foreign Affairs Committee he needs $115 million to run the Peace Corps the next fiscal year.

After the session, Shriver dropped by the White House to chat with Johnson and reports immediately began circulating that the President has decided to set up a new agency headed by Shriver to direct the administration's pledged war on poverty.

A comment from Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., that Johnson had indicated "somebody like Sargent Shriver" should direct it gave substance to the reports.

In talking with newsmen about the vice presidential nomination, Shriver said: "I've not decided to rule out anything or rule in anything. I came down here at the request of President Kennedy to try to do a job. . . . I've tended to my knitting as closely as possible. I've made a point of this. I'm not running for anything."

Would he run if Johnson asked him to?

"I don't worry about it. I don't think I'm the guy who's going to get asked," Shriver said.

Asked to comment on some of the others who have been mentioned, he said Kennedy "would be terrific. After all, who's got a better record? He's obviously got all the qualifications."

Shriver is married to the former Eunice Kennedy, a sister of the attorney general and the late President John F. Kennedy. His close connection with the Kennedy name, his poise and good looks, his northern liberal background and his Roman Catholic religion are counted as political pluses on a Johnson ticket.

Beef Cattle Able To Manufacture Own Vitamin A

Adding supplemental vitamin A to the corn silage ration of growing - fattening cattle isn't necessary according to research just completed at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

The cattle are able to manufacture their own vitamin A from the carotene present in the ration. Researcher Earle Klosterman found no difference in rate of gain or carcass quality between cattle which received supplemental amounts of vitamin A and those which did not in the Station trials.

Cattle feeds do not contain vitamin A as such, but many contain carotene, a compound which is normally changed to the vitamin during the digestive process.

However, some reports in recent years had questioned the value of carotene in corn silages. It was thought that the high rate of nitrogen fertilization of corn could result in high amounts of nitrates in the silage, which might affect the utilization of the carotene.

TEST SILAGES were made from corn which had normal fertilization and also from corn which had received excessive amounts of nitrogen. Neither silage contained significant amounts of nitrate.

According to Klosterman, if nitrates are present in the corn plant, they are likely destroyed by fermentation during ensiling.

Feeder calves which had been on green pasture and thus had liberal stores of carotene and vitamin A in their livers were used in the experiment. Both silages were fed with and without 20,000 International Units of vitamin A per head daily. There were no differences in rate of gain or carcass quality between the cattle after a 238-day period.

Other cattle were depleted of vitamin A before the trial by feeding them a ration of white corn, soybean oil meal and dried beet pulp for about five months. Blood levels of vitamin A quickly returned to normal when the cattle were fed either of the silages. Further, the vitamin A level remained normal for the 126-day experiment.

The results were the same as with the non-depleted cattle, says Klosterman. The addition of performed vitamin A to the ration was of no measurable benefit.

Prune Shrubs Before New Growth Starts

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent,
Agriculture

Shrubs that are misshapen or damaged from winter weather can be pruned during February and early March. Any extensive pruning should be done before plants begin new growth.

When pruning deciduous shrubs, remove old, heavy canes since they usually have little foliage or flowers. This will stimulate new growth. Cut out any damaged canes caused by winter weather, insects or disease and remove crossing branches.

To keep shrubs more compact and bushy, cut back the height. The amount, of course, depends on the situation - whether the shrub is a foundation, background, or border planting, for instance.

Some shrubs that are used in a hedge get too tall and leggy. The best way to control this growth is to prune the plants as they grow.

WAIT UNTIL early spring to prune your broadleaf evergreens. At this time winter damage will be more apparent and can be pruned easier.

For early flowering shrubs, also wait to prune until after flowering. If you prune now, you'll cut off the flower buds.

In such shrubs as spirea, lilac, forsythia and mock orange, the buds are formed during the summer or early fall. They should be pruned right after flowering to avoid losing the flowers the next year.

Are you a label reader? If so, you probably have noticed many different terms applied to cheese and cheese products.

These terms are your clue to how the cheese is made and what is in it. Here is how you can identify them:

Natural cheese - cheese in the original sense of the word - Cheddar, Swiss, Muenster, Edam and so forth - made by curing or aging to develop flavor.

Pasteurized process cheese - a blend or combination of natural cheeses which have been blended by heating and melting.

Pasteurized process cheese food - a product prepared in much the same manner as process cheese except that it contains less cheese and has nonfat dry milk or whey solids and water added. It may also contain pimento, fruits, vegetables, or meats.

Pasteurized process cheese spread - a product containing more water than cheese food. Its milk fat content is also lower, and very often flavoring materials are added.

Club cheese - a blend or mixture of natural cheeses which have been thoroughly mixed without heating. Flavoring ingredients and spices may also be used.

Cheese is one of the most nutritious and versatile foods. Because it is an excellent source of many important nutrients in the diet and because it is a well-liked food, it is used freely by nutritionists and homemakers in planning meals and in the preparation of many flavorful dishes.

With the wide variety of flavors, colors and consistencies to choose from, natural cheeses are suitable for any meal of the day, from appetizers to desserts, and between-meal snacks as well.

Whether served separately, or in combination dishes, cheese adds zest and flavor to other foods. There is a kind to suit every taste, mood or occasion.

Some of the many ways of using different kinds of cheese are:

Main dish in the form of a fondue, souffle, welsh rabbit, omelet, pizza, or in combination with potatoes, other vegetables, rice, macaroni, noodles or spaghetti; assorted on trays with fruit, nuts and crackers or chips; appetizers in the form of cut cheese or as spreads and dips; sliced in toasted or cold sandwiches or as an ingredient in sandwich spreads and sauces; grated as a garnish for soups, sauces and hot dishes; desserts, as cheese and crackers, cheese cakes, cheese pies or fruit pies with cheese.

Valuable Tips Are Offered In Farm Tax Guide Booklet

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent,
Agriculture

Since the farmer is a businessman, the normal and ordinary expenses of operating any business are deductible on his Federal Income Tax Return.

Such expenses include wages for labor hired, machines hired, repairs and maintenance of equipment, cost of fertilizer and lime applied to farm land, interest payments on mortgages and other obligations, cost of supplies such as insect sprays and dusts, trucking and freight expenses and many others.

Farmers should refer to "The Farmer's Tax Guide" for a comprehensive discussion of farm business expenses and other deductions. A copy of this booklet may be obtained free of charge from any Internal Revenue office or agricultural agent.

Farmers must remember, however, not to confuse personal expense with business expense. Many of the items purchased during a tax year are partly for use in the farm business and partly for the farmer's personal use.

THESE MAY include gasoline, oil, water, rent, electricity, telephone, automobile, repairs, insurance, interest and taxes. The portion of the cost of these items that applies to personal use is not deductible as a business expense and an allocation on them must be made.

No rule can be prescribed for the method of making these allocations other than one of reasonableness. What constitutes reasonableness depend upon the circumstances in each individual case. The farmer is the one in the best position to make this determination and if his allocation is fair and reasonable, it will be accepted by the Internal Revenue Service.

There are some rather common errors in the matter of confusing business and personal expense which might be mentioned. One is the purchase price of chickens and plants to be used as food for the family. This may not be listed as a business expense.

Another is the claiming of the total real estate taxes on a farm, including a personal residence, as a business expense. Only the portion pertaining to the farm land and assets is deductible as a business expense.

The taxes on the residence are deductible as an itemized deduction if the standard deduction isn't claimed. If only one tax bill for the entire farm is received, the taxes assessed must be prorated between the farm assets and the non-business assets. One method of doing this is to base your proration on the basis of real estate valuations.

A third very common error in the matter of making incorrect business expense deductions is the claiming of capital expenditures as an expense instead of taking a depreciation allowance for such items.

A CAPITAL expenditure is an amount paid or a debt incurred from the acquisition, improvement or restoration of an asset having a useful life of more than one year. The costs of erecting a new barn, putting a new roof on an old barn, purchasing new items of farm equipment, putting up a new fence, buying livestock for dairy or breeding use, drilling a well or a major overhaul of the farm tractor are all capital expenditures.

These costs are not deductible as current business expenses, but are subject to a depreciation allowance by which the farmer is allowed to claim the cost of the capital expenditure, less salvage value of the asset, prorated throughout the useful life of the asset.

Depreciation allowance may be computed in several ways.

The most common method of computing depreciation is the "straight line" method in which the cost of an asset less its estimated value at the end of its useful life is deducted in equal annual amounts over the life of the asset. For example, a farmer might buy a tractor for $4,000 which should last him 10 years and be worth approximately $600 at the end of that time. The allowable depreciation for each of the 10 years would be $340, one-tenth of the cost less the estimated salvage value.

There are other methods of computing depreciation and the entire subject is extensively covered in "The Farmer's Tax Guide."

Farmers may obtain a copy of this booklet for a detailed explanation of capital expenditures and depreciation allowances from the County Agricultural Extension office.

Pickaway County 4-H tractor club will be organizing in the near future.

The 4-H tractor program is designed to give young men the opportunity to learn the why and how of tractor care. The boys actually work on tractors at the 4-H club meetings.

Boys taking the first year 4-H project study tractor safety, engine operation, lubrication, oils, air cleaning, carburetion, ignition and cooling. The advanced projects go into more details in tractors and also other machinery.

Club members are eligible to participate in the tractor operator's contest at the Pickaway County Fair. This is the combination of a written test on tractor problems, and an operator's test where the boy actually drives a tractor pulling various pieces of equipment and goes through an obstacle course. The contestant is graded on the quiz and his skill in operating the tractor and attached equipment. The county fair winner participates in the contest at the Ohio State Fair.

There are only a few requirements. Prospective members must be 12-20 years of age, have access to a tractor between the meetings and attend the meetings. The tractor club will have about 10 sessions between mid Feb. and Aug. 1.

Those interested in joining the club may contact the County Extension Office, 159 1/2 E. Main St.

Rally on Tuesday To Open Farm Bureau Member Drive

Approximately 75 persons are expected to rally at the 4-H and Gange Building 8 p.m. Tuesday to kick-off the 1964 Farm Bureau Membership Drive in Pickaway County.

The campaign will begin Wednesday morning. A team of workers in each township will call on their neighbors, asking them to become members of the largest farm organization in the world.

Daily results will be reported by township captains to Ed Johnson, tri county organization director and John Stevenson, membership growth committee chairman. All captains are to make their final reports by 5 p.m. Feb. 12.

"Our immediate goal is to show gain in membership over last year and we are hoping to accomplish that goal by Feb. 8," according to Stevenson. "Our next goal will be to reach a membership of 600 by Feb. 12," he said. Membership in the local farm organization was 574 in 1963.

County Farm Bureau leaders will tell prospective members of the achievements made by the Farm Bureau in 1963 as well as issues that are on the "front burner" for 1964.

Achievements include such factors as the prohibiting of hunting on Sunday, a much better trespassing law for Ohio farmers, extension of the personal property tax payment date for feed supplies on storage and the major victory in the spring wheat referendum. Things on the "front burner" include bargaining and marketing, tax reform in Ohio, a sound farm program and reapportionment.

Many of the campaign workers are helping because they feel that American agriculture must remain as one of the key industries in the United States, FB officials point out. They realize that with the decrease in the number of farms and farm people they must be a part of a farm organization that will represent them in their local, state and national governments they added.

Numerous county and state prizes are at stake for those workers, townships and districts that show best results during the drive.

A Victory Party is being planned to celebrate the results at the end of the membership campaign.

Persons laying the major plans for the 1964 drive include Stevenson, Dick Hansen, William Richards, Hal Richard, Dick Tootle, Hoyt Martin, Loring Leist and Russell Wadelich.

Petition Filing Deadline For Ohio Is Wednesday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's political moment of truth falls at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

That's the petition filing deadline for candidates to qualify in the May 5 primary nomination contests. Winners will face each other in the Nov. 3 general election.

Obtaining signatures of voters on petitions is a painstaking chore that only determined office seekers undertake. Most politicians like it that way.

Tight rules keep Joe Blow off the ballot without preventing novices and perennials from seeking office.

Topping state tickets this year will be candidates for Republican and Democratic U.S. senatorial nominations. Famous names have focused national attention on those races.

Other statewide races feature candidates for congressman-at-large and four Ohio Supreme Court seats.

Those candidates must submit petitions bearing between 1,000 and 5,000 signatures obtained in at least 30 of Ohio's 88 counties and pay a $50 filing fee.

Delegates-at-large to national conventions of both parties will be elected statewide in the primary. Other convention delegates will be elected in congressional districts along with state central committee members of both parties.

Petitions for statewide posts must be in the hands of Secretary of State Ted W. Brown before the filing deadline to quality. Those mailed but unrecieved within that time don't count.

District candidates must file with the election board in their most populous county, county candidates with their local election boards.

Major office seekers often like to file personally for maximum exposure to reporters and photographers.

The secretary of state and election boards must determine the validity and sufficiency of petition by Feb. 11.

Feb. 15 is the final date for protests against candidate qualifications and for candidates to withdraw.

In addition to U.S. senator and congressman-at-large, candidates for U.S. representative will file in Ohio's 23 congressional districts.

Other candidates will file for the state legislature and all county offices except auditor, unless unexpired terms are involved. Fewer signatures are required on petitions for those posts than for statewide office.

Two commissioner posts will be sought in each county this year, with a few counties having additional races for unexpired terms.

Other county posts sought include: Prosecutor, clerk of courts, sheriff, coroner, recorder, treasurer, engineer and some Common Pleas and Probate judgeships.

Candidates for county judge vacancies must be nominated by petition filed with election boards before the Wednesday deadline. Petitions must contain not less than one per cent of the most recent total vote for governor in the county court district.

Independent candidates for state, district and county offices also must file before the deadline but their names will appear only on November election ballots.

Their petitions must contain at least 218,187 valid signatures for nomination to state office, 7 per cent of the 1962 vote for governor in districts or counties for nomination in those areas, with some exceptions for judges.

Billy Graham May Run for U.S. President

NEW YORK (AP) — The Scripps - Howard Newspapers said Friday Evangelist Billy Graham may run for president.

"Despite his frequent denials, he is giving 'earnest and prayerful consideration' to the idea," Scripps-Howard said in a dispatch from Houston, Tex.

The dispatch quoted Graham, in Houston for a meeting, as saying: "I am not interested in seeking public office."

It said the key word was "seeking" — that he would not seek the office by announcing himself as a candidate, but that he might in certain circumstances accept a draft.

"If he accepted such a draft, it would be as a Republican," the story said.

In Houston, Graham said he might have some comment on the story Tuesday or Wednesday.

"Where the Desire to Serve Always Prevails"

Passing of January

Passing of the first month of any year is a significant milestone in the march of the seasons. Although February, in many areas of the nation, is the coldest month of the year and frequently brings the heaviest snowfall, there are unmistakable signs that changes are in the near offing, some almost imperceptible.

And there is no doubt that days are now becoming longer rapidly and that soon morning and evening meals will be enjoyed in daylight. When daylight lengths, balmy days cannot be too far off.

Already people are beginning to think of spring and summer instead of winter. Plans for approaching summer vacation time are being made. But the irrefutable proof that winter is being left rapidly behind is found in the arrival of seed catalogs. When seed catalogs arrive, King Winter might as well prepare to abdicate.

A casual glance at one of these colorful examples of the printer's art leaves no doubt that they are heralds of sunny climes. Depicted on their covers, in colorful giant size, are products of the farm and garden that could be produced only under the most favorable meteorological conditions, if at all.

'Nuclear Energy' Canal?

Almost as an afterthought to the Panama Canal crisis, scientists supporting Project Plowshare have revived speculation about a new canal constructed by nuclear energy. Plowshare is the ambitious program initiated years ago by the Atomic Energy Commission to develop safe ways of literally moving mountains with nuclear explosions.

Much of the steam behind Project Plowshare evaporated with the approval of the 1963 test ban treaty, prohibiting testing in the atmosphere, in the ocean or above ground. But instead of dying, Plowshare evolved into a few months of intensive study of the effects of test explosions made in recent years.

Out of this study has come a new technique which the AEC says could dig a new canal across terrain joining North and South America at less cost than to widen the present canal to accommodate larger ships. Dangers of radioactive contamination have been reduced to reasonably safe limits.

The decision to build a new canal or widen the present one hinges more than ever on relations between the U.S. and Panamanian governments. The present deteriorated state of affairs is not likely to affect U.S. determination to control the existing canal, but it is weighing heavily against improvements to the waterway.

More complicated is the question whether the test ban treaty might also have eliminated a bright future for many applications of peaceful atomic energy. Plowshare enthusiasts already have begun a microscopic study of the treaty to determine whether it expressly forbids an explosion created by a bomb covered by only a few feet of dirt. This is the type of explosion which could be employed in series to blast a new canal.

Other scientists are hard at work to perfect the "clean bomb." They are confident, as a result of a test made in 1962, that more than 90 per cent of radioactive fallout can be eliminated from a controlled explosion. This safety factor can be further improved with recently developed techniques.

I would like to comment somewhat on the letter to the editor of Jan. 24.

True we don't hear much about the liquor traffic which I think is the No. 1 menace. I hardly agree with the writer who says the ones who smoke harm only themselves.

You or I might smoke cigarettes for 50 years and not feel any ill effects, but maybe our grand or great grandchildren might die with cancer caused by our smoking. God said He will visit the iniquity of the parents upon children to the third and fourth generations.

True God did give us the tobacco plant. True He also gave us the rattlesnake and the deadly cobra. But certainly He did not intend for us to play around with these reptiles.

Tobacco is a poison and should be labeled as such.

New Claim Filed for $21,259

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—When he was on his deathbed in 1957, Joseph Calcagno talked about money and told members of the family not to sell his house in nearby Cuyahoga Falls.

The house was searched thoroughly for several days, but no money was found, said Nunzio Calcagno, Joseph's nephew. The house passed to Nunzio's father, Antonio, and when Antonio died in 1961 it became Nunzio's house.

He sold it.

Tuesday night a 16-year-old boy now living in the house found $21,259 under a floorboard.

Now there are three claimants for the money. Nunzio Calcagno flew here Thursday from Oakland, Calif., to put in his claim. But Thomas J. Lo Cascio, present owner of the house, also claims the money. He says he bought the house in 1962 and feels that he is entitled to all its contents.

The tenant of the house is Mrs. Harriet Morris, 42-year-old divorcee whose son, David, found the cache.

Mrs. Morris, a $270-a-month office worker, says she wants the money, too, and her attorney said he plans to file a claim.

"I need it so badly," said Mrs. Morris.

A young toddler at a crowded beach reported tearfully to a lifeguard that he was lost. "Why didn't you hang on to your mother's bathing suit?" asked the lifeguard. The toddler explained, "I couldn't reach it."

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

It has been said that doctors have some very reliable signs by which they determine when hospitalized patients are well on their way to recovery and discharge. When the male shaves and the female puts her lipstick on and when they both begin to complain of the food, they are well on their way back to health.

No one really has ever denied that hospital food does not measure up to that of Maxim's in Paris, but then, no one could deny that Maxim's does not have medical and surgical facilities for recovery from an illness.

No one has ever been known to enter a hospital for the sole purpose of trying pheasant under glass or crepe suzettes.

A novel plan was introduced at the Rowan Memorial Hospital in Salisbury, North Carolina.

Patients who were not restricted to any special diet were allowed to order a select gourmet dinner, purchased as a gift by a relative or friend. A 12-ounce steak with baked potato smothered in sour cream and chives is served with specially prepared vegetables on Wedgewood china with Williamsburg silver and Swiss linen napkins. Hospital administrators have already noted a revitalization of morale that adequately compensates for the $3.50 cost to the donor.

One doctor facetiously remarked that, on the maid's night out, he takes his wife to the hospital for dinner. His only complaint is that first his temperature is taken and that he must have his dinner at 4:30 in the afternoon, a most unsophisticated time for even this exquisite delight.

The exhilarating, healthy sport of snow-skiing has many thousands of enthusiastic devotees all over the world. People of all ages are enjoying the invigorating fund of soaring down a mountainside on runners of wood or steel.

When a sport has attained such tremendous popularity, some inherent hazards necessarily increase, mostly because of carelessness. Many of these risks can be eliminated if simple, sensible precautions are taken.

The cardinal, inflexible rule is that skiers must recognize their own limitations in skill. Safe slopes are available for everyone.

The following rules for safety have been established by ski experts.

- 1) Know the limits of your capabilities.
- 2) Wear warm and proper clothing in order to avoid frostbite.
- 3) Avoid makeshift equipment. Properly fitted, well-adjusted boots, skis and bindings are essential.
- 4) Get in condition for skiing with gentle, progressive exercise. Muscles that have been dormant for a year cannot be expected to withstand sudden tensions and exertions.
- 5) For beginners, a few basic lessons are beneficial and will increase the fun of the sport.
- 6) Strictly obey the regulations established by the ski patrol at each area. Difficult, dangerous slopes are for experts, not for beginners or intermediates. A beginner on a difficult course endangers not only his own life, but that of other skiers. Experts should not demonstrate their facility on beginners' slopes. This, too, is dangerous to all skiers on the slope.
- 7) Familiarize yourself with the mechanics of the particular tow or lift you are using.

For those who love the life of ski resorts and lodges but cannot ski, a plaster cast, of all things, can now be purchased and applied to the intact left leg. It lends distinction and allows membership in the exclusive skiers' society without the need to prove one's skill!

Does the West Face Suicide?

By John Chamberlain

A number of years ago my friend James Burnham wrote a heartening book called "The Coming Defeat of Communism." Now I see that he is represented on the publishers' spring list with a forthcoming title, "Suicide of the West."

I haven't had the opportunity to read Mr. Burnham's latest reflections, but I can see a reason for his apparent change of heart. For 1964 could be the year of the western world's great moral and strategic collapse.

The tendency, in this country, is to blame the disaster in the western camp on De Gaulle. Or upon the British. We get angry when De Gaulle decides in his own lordly way to recognize Red China in hopes that France will get something substantial out of it, either in trade or in influence. And we express our displeasure when the British sell 400 Leyland Motor Corp. buses to Fidel Castro's Cuba for $11 million on easy credit terms.

The French and British decisions, however, are effects rather than causes; and there will be many more such symptomatic happenings in 1964 simply because every nation, the U. S. included, has gone over to the "every country for itself" policy. The Japanese, flouting the objections of Chiang Kai-shek's Formosa government, have delivered a Red Chinese defector, Chou Hung-ching, back to Peking, which has been taken as an indication that Japan is about to woo Red China in hopes of increasing its trade with the Asiatic mainland. In deporting Chou Hung-ching the Japanese were not breaking any front. They were merely doing what the British government had done in Hongkong when it refused sanctuary to refugees from behind the Bamboo Curtain.

Unlike Britain and Canada, which have never missed an opportunity to make an economic deal with Red China, the U. S. has refrained from giving Mao Tse-tung's government any economic help. But our State Department, through its Assistant Secretary for Far Eastern Affairs, Mr. Roger Hilsman, has hinted broadly that it would welcome both a renewal of relations with mainland China and a "two-China" policy vis-a-vis Formosa. The price of renewal was tacitly set as calling for less sword brandishing on Mao Tse-tung's part. Well, Mao hasn't been threatening De Gaulle's France—so how can we logically berate De Gaulle for doing what we are obviously prepared to do once Mao has decided to be friendly toward us?

We have decided to sell wheat to Soviet Russia, which supports Castro's Cuba. The British have decided to sell buses to Castro's Cuba, which supports Soviet Russia. We stopped the British and the French from defending their contractual rights in the Suez Canal issue. Now the British and the French snicker at us because Panama is calling into question our contractual rights in the Panama Canal Zone. So who has been leading whom? De Gaulle has undercut us in southeast Asia by suggesting that all of Vietnam might be "neutralized." But the De Gaulle prescription for Vietnam is more or less patterned on our own previous prescription for Laos, which is the country through which Red Chinese aid reaches Red guerrillas in South Vietnam's Mekong Delta.

The reason for our current troubles is that the whole West, taking it as an entity, has "sold the pass." The West has never had any unified policy toward Communism. Now the "sauve qui peut" chickens are coming home to roost. And the U. S. is just as much to blame as England or France or anyone else for the big collapse. Even Franco's Spain has apparently decided there is no point to adhering to anti-Communist doctrine, if the reports that it intends building fishing vessels for Castro's Cuba are borne out by events.

If the "suicide" that Mr. Burnham mentions fails to materialize, it will only be because our Communist enemies beat us to the suicide exit. Fortunately for us, it will take more than 400 British buses and a few Spanish-built fishing vessels to raise the standard of living in Cuba. And De Gaulle can hardly feed a starving China.

They used to say that the Lord takes care of drunks, fools and the United States of America." Our chief hope for 1964 is that the same Lord will, in His providence, take care of drunks, fools and the whole western world.

White, Nonwhite World Battle Is Possible

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Events in Asia and Africa cast a grim shadow over the future, raising the prospect—perhaps still years away — of a world divided into hostile white and nonwhite camps.

Chain reaction explosions in Africa and shifting political patterns in Asia may be traceable, at least in part, to the battle royal between the Soviet Union and Communist China over what directions the world Communist movement should take.

This battle, which began in earnest about five or six years ago, had led Communist China to strike out on its own in those underdeveloped areas of the world where Peking seems to feel it can make the swiftest progress.

The Red Chinese are making some headway, too, and this likely is a source of alarm not only to the United States but to the man in the Kremlin. Willy nilly, events may push the Soviet Union and the United States closer together as the two powers with the greatest responsibilities and the most at stake.

The cold war picture is affected by the behavior of President Charles de Gaulle's France, which appears to be acting out a role of catalyst speeding up the action and reaction of new forces released by the Soviet-Chinese conflict.

Perhaps De Gaulle, noting the decreasing communication between Peking and Moscow, sees France as a prospective bridge between Red China and the West. There are no signs that Peking is looking for any such bridge.

It is possible that De Gaulle sees a good chance of salvaging something of what France once had in the way of authority in the East and in Africa, and that he also sees advantages in getting in on the ground floor in trade with Red China. But if the lessons of the past are any guide France likely will be wary. She tried a decade ago to salvage something out of her crumbling Southeast Asian empire and came out of it empty-handed.

What France may be doing these days, however, is conferring sufficient stature upon the Red Chinese regime to tip the scales at the next session of the United Nations and force Pe-king's entry at the expense of Nationalist China. Even the threat of such a development—in an American presidential year—can cause political turmoil.

This writer has just returned from the Middle East, where responsible Western diplomats are exhibiting deep worry about the shifting alliances and the sporadic explosions in Africa—
Zanzibar, Tanganyika, Uganda

and possibly other areas later on. These may be earmarking 1964 as a bad year for the world's peace of mind.

Red Chinese Premier Chou
En-lai has been touring Africa, asserting Peking's intention to seize the leadership of the non-white world and turn it against imperialists.

With the state of relations between the Chinese and Soviet Communist parties, even the Soviet Union and the European Communists it commands can be equated in the Chinese mind with the imperialist camp.

Peking has displayed deep satisfaction with the way things are going in the underdeveloped countries and with what it calls the "national liberation movement." To Peking's way of thinking, a national liberation movement is any violent movement which expels U.S. and Western influence. The Soviet Union has accused the Red Chinese of using racial feelings to advance its claim to leadership of this violence and of deliberately setting white against non-white.

Moscow regards all this so seriously that it would be no surprise if Premier Khrushchev braves the torrid springtime heat of Africa and drops in on festivities in connection with completion of the first phase of the United Arab Republic's Aswan Dam.

Such a trip might be intended less as a ceremonial attendance at ribbon-cutting for a project financed by Moscow than as a public appearance in Africa to deaden the effects of Chou's trip.

If the United States is worried about developments in the underdeveloped world, so is Moscow in all likelihood. The careful Soviet attitude in recent months, steering clear of stirring up hornets' nests in areas like the Middle East, seems a token of that worry.

When it comes to China and the future, the Soviet Union and the United States may have a good deal of worry in common.

Nottingham Hails Robin Hood

NOTTINGHAM, England (AP)
—The sheriff of Nottingham has sent congratulations to Robin Hood—of Monticello, Ark.

Robin, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Mack Hood, is to marry Ruth Linn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Truman Linn, also of Monticello, on Feb. 14.

Glenn Martin, a friend of Robin's, wrote the sheriff, Alderman Percy Holland, telling him of the wedding.

Holland wrote to Robin, sending "my cordial greetings and best wishes," and saying: "The spirit of Robin Hood lives on.
There are still plenty of people here who are willing to fight for a good cause."

A BOY AND HIS HEROES

One of the keys to a boy's character is his choice of heroes.

For a hero is more than a portrait on the wall. A hero is an ideal — a blueprint of greatness.

And where does a boy find his heroes?

He finds them in books and on the playing field . . . in his school, his family, his Church.

The Church's contribution to a child's gallery of heroes is unique.

Bible study and religious education not only introduce him to the greatest lives ever lived . . . but they teach him how to build the same qualities of heroism into his own life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Yorks Adds Confusion To Denver Hospital

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — No wonder things seem confused in the nursery at Fitzsimons General Hospital.

Army Maj. Elva York is a nurse there. So is her twin sister,
Maj. Elta York.

Newborn in the nursery are Betty and Belinda York, twin daughters of Sgt. and Mrs. Gor-

The Church's contribution to a child's gallery of heroes is unique.

Bible study and religious education not only introduce him to the greatest lives ever lived . . . but they teach him how to build the same qualities of heroism into his own life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Wouldn't Step on It
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A school principal was surprised to walk into a classroom and find a barefoot teacher carefully sweeping the floor while the pupils sat with feet pulled upon their seats.

The teacher explained she had lost one of her new contact lenses. She discovered a short time later that it had just slipped to one side of her eye and the class returned to normal.

Yorks Adds Confusion To Denver Hospital
DENVER, Colo. (AP) — No wonder things seem confused in the nursery at Fitzsimons General Hospital.

Army Maj. Elva York is a nurse there. So is her twin sister, Maj. Elta York.

Newborn in the nursery are Betty and Belinda York, twin daughters of Sgt. and Mrs. Gordon L. York. This family and the nurses are unrelated.

Easy Sale
FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Homebuilder J.B. Nelson sold a house he built in White Lake Hills without even showing the prospective owners through it.

A couple called him and admitted they had "broken into" the closed house by entering through a window. They liked it, they reported, and wanted to make arrangements to buy it.

Man Held For Slaying Of His Wife
FOSTORIA, Ohio (AP) — Municipal Court Judge Samuel F. Hammonds has bound Robert S. Moore, 20, to the Seneca County grand jury following a preliminary hearing on a first-degree murder charge.

Police Chief James S. Meek charged Moore with murder following investigation of the death of Moore's wife, Phyllis, 19, who originally was believed to have died in a fire that destroyed their home here Jan. 8.

Dr. William Hoffman, Cuyahoga County coroner's pathologist, testified that Mrs. Moore was stabbed before her body was burned.

Capt. Charles Lang of the Fostoria Fire Department said Mrs. Moore's body was found in front of a fuel oil heating stove and that a gasoline can was between her legs. He said the stove was intact and showed no signs of having exploded.

Dr. E. T. Sheeran, who had pronounced Mrs. Moore dead at Fostoria City Hospital, was the only defense witness. He disagreed with Dr. Hoffman's conclusions, saying the stab wound would not have caused death. He said death was due to the fire.

Moore, who rescued his two small children from the fire, told police he was driven back by the flames and smoke when he tried to save his wife.

State Parolee Aide Is Fired by Rhodes
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes has revoked the appointment of Roland R. Lutz as Ohio's interstate compact administrator of parolees from other states living here and Ohioans on parole in other states.

Lutz, chief of Ohio's Bureau of Probation and Parole, will be replaced in the interstate assignment by John W. Shoemaker, assistant bureau administrator. The action followed a shake-up of the probation and parole setup by Rhodes' administration.

Nottingham Hails Robin Hood
NOTTINGHAM, England (AP) —The sheriff of Nottingham has sent congratulations to Robin Hood—of Monticello, Ark.

Robin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hood, is to marry Ruth Linn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Linn, also of Monticello, on Feb. 14.

Glenn Martin, a friend of Robin's, wrote the sheriff, Alderman Percy Holland, telling him of the wedding.

Holland wrote to Robin, sending "my cordial greetings and best wishes," and saying: "The spirit of Robin Hood lives on. There are still plenty of people here who are willing to fight for a good cause."

One of the keys to a boy's character is his choice of heroes.

For a hero is more than a portrait on the wall. A hero is an ideal — a blueprint of greatness.

And where does a boy find his heroes?

He finds them in books and on the playing field . . . in his school, his family, his Church.

Accessories Discussed by Miss Tackett

Miss Emma Lou Tackett presented a program on the topic, "Accessories in the Home" when the Wayne Area Home Demonstration Group met Tuesday at the school.

A brief business meeting was held preceding the program. Miss Tackett explained that accessories are special objects that add character, individuality, color and effect to a room. She advised against overcrowding accessories which should be simple in shape and form and have the right coloring.

The speaker suggested placing lamps where they will be useful as well as decorative and using pictures or mirrors to complete a room. Miss Tackett concluded by pointing out that background is important, light delicate objects should never be mixed with heavy pottery, and accessories should have balance. The proper use of accessories can make the difference between a restful room or a room of cluttered disorder.

The topic for February will be "Selecting Washers and Dryers." The group will meet 7:30 p. m. Feb. 25.

Those present were Mary Hoffmann, Mildred Schein, Jean Davis, Dolores Yapel, Lorraine Brown, Pat Karshner and Miss Tackett.

Good companions: apple juice and cranberry juice poured over ice cubes. Add sparkling water or ginger ale for a little fizz.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and members made programs, favors and decorations for the convention.

The group announced the candidacy of Miss Barbara Caskey for Province President. Mrs. Blenn Stevenson and Mrs. Rose-lynn D. Eccard were appointed to start the campaign.

Dear Abby: As a journalist, responsible for writing the truth, did you do a competent research job before giving credit to the Houston Police Department for "Ten Easy Rules For Raising A Delinquent"? Sincerely yours, MINISTER, KANSAS

My dear Reverend: The item in question was sent to me by a Chicago reader, crediting the Houston Police Department with authorship. Believing that people are honest until proved otherwise, I ran it verbatim, including the credit. My primary purpose in using the item was to share it with my readers, not to applaud the author. I have since heard from 22 readers, each ascribing authorship of "The Rules" to a different source. If the Houston Police Department did not originate them, I hope the real author will step forward, make himself known and accept my apologies. And now I am reminded of an appropriate quote (I know not whose): "There is no end to the amount of good people could accomplish in this world if nobody cared who got the credit."

DEAR ABBY: I am a newspaper compositor and your column comes to my attention frequently. I agree with your advice—most of the time. An exception being your reply to the man whose name was erroneously included with the list of employees who, though uninvited to the wedding, gave the boss' daughter a gift. His reasons for not conforming were valid, and his name could have been added purposely either to make him conform; become a conspicuous nonconformist in the eyes of his boss; or live a lie among his associates. Your reply dictates that he should allow himself to be tricked into donating to something he believes to be incorrect to expose himself to a potentially vindictive superior. I feel he should be defended and commended—let the one who added his name to the list kick in with the five bucks.

TED FARABEE
DEAR MR. FARABEE: I don't know for which newspaper you work, but they are lucky. Although I gave a great deal of thought to my reply, I must admit I missed the boat. Your answer was better, and I thank you.

DEAR ABBY: My brother claims to be a religious man, but when he does his chores (he is a farmer) he beats his animals so unmercifully it would make you sick to watch him. I saw him kick a newborn calf halfway across the barn for no reason at all. He also kicked a pig in the mouth until it bled just because it wouldn't wait until he had put all the food in the trough. This same brother can quote passages from the Bible as good as any preacher. I go to church, but I don't attend as regularly as he does. He wouldn't miss a service for anything. Now, what kind of religion do you call that?

NO NAME PLEASE
DEAR NO NAME: Your brother may be exposed to religion, and even preach it, but he isn't practicing it. It's difficult to believe that a man who is as familiar with the word of the Lord could behave so inhumanely to any of God's creatures. I think he needs to have his head examined.

The February meeting will be a Lincoln - Washington Dinner held in the home of Mrs. Wayne Stonerock, 1250 S. Pickaway St.

Woman Is Acquitted In Slaying of Mate
CLEVELAND (AP)—A jury has acquitted Mrs. Lucy McKinney, 23, of Cleveland of a second-degree murder charge in the shooting death of her husband in a streetside argument.

Mrs. McKinney testified that she had drawn a revolver to protect herself. She said the gun discharged when her husband pounced on her during the quarrel last Oct. 26 in front of a West Side service station.

If you make homemade noodles, try dressing them — after they are cooked — with loads of sweet butter and freshly grated Parmesan cheese. Then sprinkle with a generous amount of minced parsley.

Before dinner snack: marinate cooked shrimp (after shelling and deveining) in olive oil and lemon juice, adding a cut clove or two of garlic. Remove the shrimp from the marinade just before serving and offer them with cocktail picks for tidy eating.

State Patrol Academy Is Given Nod
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Initial action has been taken toward construction of a new $1,305,000 Ohio Highway Patrol Academy on the state fairgrounds in Columbus.

The State Controlling Board released $76,775 to the Department of Highway Safety Thursday to hire Tibbals, Crumley, Musson to draw plans for the new academy to replace the old one south of Columbus on U.S. 23. The Ohio legislature has appropriated $1.5 million for the project.

The board released the following from a $5.5 million capital improvements appropriation to the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction:
Installing a complete fire alarm system at Athens State Hospital, $50,000.
Rewiring cottages at Gallipolis State Institute, $38,900.
Painting, repairing and rehabilitation work at London Correctional Institution, $160,000, and replacing three silos there $15,000.
Repairing roof of main building at Athens State Hospital, $4,720.
A grapefruit knife is a handy gadget for separating grapefruit sections from surrounding membranes; it also does a good job in removing the chokes from artichokes.

Nisei Promoted To Brigadier

HONOLULU (AP) — The United States had been at war more than a year and to the young lieutenant it seemed he might never be called to active duty. There was even the possibility that he might be treated like an enemy.

Today he wears the single star of a brigadier general — the only American of Japanese ancestry to rise to such a rank.

As brigadier, Francis A. Takemoto — a 52-year-old school principal — commands three battalions of the Hawaii National Guard. There are 1,800 men under his command.

Twenty years ago Takemoto waited day after day to receive the call to duty. He had been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps while a student at Santa Barbara State College in California in 1935.

Around him, on the islands of Hawaii, there were cries to herd all Japanese into relocation camps on the U.S. mainland. Each person of Japanese ancestry was looked upon with great suspicion.

One day in 1943, a military policeman appeared at Takemoto's home. The MP asked why hadn't he reported for duty?

It turned out that the message activating reserve officers took a long time getting from Pacific Army headquarters in Honolulu to Hilo — some 200 miles away.

Takemoto was one of approximately 1,300 men sent to Camp Shelby, Miss., for training and later to Europe with the 100th Infantry Battalion of the famed 442nd "Go for Broke" Regiment, which went into action at Anzio beach in Italy.

These men went to war to prove a point — that they were first and above all, Americans. They emerged from combat as the most decorated group in the entire U.S. Army.

After a day in his office at a Honolulu elementary school near Pearl Harbor, the general dons a uniform with a silver and blue combat infantryman's badge, and the multicolored ribbon.

Before dinner snack: marinate cooked shrimp (after shelling and deveining) in olive oil and lemon juice, adding a cut clove or two of garlic. Remove the shrimp from the marinade just before serving and offer them with cocktail picks for tidy eating.

Accessories Discussed by Miss Tackett

Miss Emma Lou Tackett presented a program on the topic, "Accessories in the Home" when the Wayne Area Home Demonstration Group met Tuesday at the school.

A brief business meeting was held preceding the program. Miss Tackett explained that accessories are special objects that add character, individuality, color and effect to a room. She advised against overcrowding accessories which should be simple in shape and form and have the right coloring.

The speaker suggested placing lamps where they will be useful as well as decorative and using pictures or mirrors to complete a room. Miss Tackett concluded by pointing out that background is important, light delicate objects should never be mixed with heavy pottery, and accessories should have balance. The proper use of accessories can make the difference between a restful room or a room of cluttered disorder.

The topic for February will be "Selecting Washers and Dryers." The group will meet 7:30 p. m. Feb. 25.

Those present were Mary Hoffman, Mildred Schein, Jean Davis, Dolores Yapel, Lorraine Brown, Pat Karshner and Miss Tackett.

Good companions; apple juice and cranberry juice poured over ice cubes. Add sparkling water or ginger ale for a little fizz.

Dear Abby: To Those in Doubt

DEAR ABBY: As a journalist, responsible for writing the truth, did you do a competent research job before giving credit to the Houston Police Department for "Ten Easy Rules For Raising A Delinquent"?

Sincerely yours,
MINISTER, KANSAS
My dear Reverend: The item in question was sent to me by a Chicago reader, crediting the Houston Police Department with authorship. Believing that people are honest until proved otherwise, I ran it verbatim, including the credit. My primary purpose in using the item was to share it with my readers, not to applaud the author. I have since heard from 22 readers, each ascribing authorship of "The Rules" to a different source. If the Houston Police Department did not originate them, I hope the real author will step forward, make himself known and accept my apologies. And now I am reminded of an appropriate quote (I know not whose): "There is no end to the amount of good people could accomplish in this world if nobody cared who got the credit."

DEAR ABBY: I am a newspaper compositor and your column comes to my attention frequently. I agree with your advice—most of the time. An exception being your reply to the man whose name was erroneously included with the list of employees who, though uninvited to the wedding, gave the boss' daughter a gift. His reasons for not conforming were valid, and his name could have been added purposely either to make him conform; become a conspicuous nonconformist in the eyes of his boss; or live a lie among his associates. Your reply dictates that he should allow himself to be tricked into donating to something he believes to be incorrect to expose himself to a potentially vindictive superior. I feel he should be defended and commended—let the one who added his name to the list kick in with the five bucks.

DEAR MR. FARABEE: I don't know for which newspaper you work, but they are lucky. Although I gave a great deal of thought to my reply, I must admit I missed the boat. Your answer was better, and I thank you.

DEAR ABBY: My brother claims to be a religious man, but when he does his chores (he is a farmer) he beats his animals so unmercifully it would make you sick to watch him. I saw him club a poor old cow so bad one day I actually cried for her. Another time, I saw him kick a newborn calf halfway across the barn for no reason at all. He also kicked a pig in the mouth until it bled just because it wouldn't wait until he had put all the food in the trough. This same brother can quote passages from the Bible as good as any preacher. I go to church, but I don't attend as regularly as he does. He wouldn't miss a service for anything. Now, what kind of religion do you call that?

DEAR NO NAME: Your brother may be exposed to religion, and even preach it, but he isn't practicing it. It's difficult to believe that a man who is as familiar with the word of the Lord could behave so inhumanely to any of God's creatures. I think he needs to have his head examined.

The February meeting will be a Lincoln - Washington Dinner held in the home of Mrs. Wayne Stonerock, 1250 S. Pickaway St.

Woman Is Acquitted In Slaying of Mate

CLEVELAND (AP)—A jury has acquitted Mrs. Lucy McKinney, 23, of Cleveland of a second-degree murder charge in the shooting death of her husband in a street-side argument.

Mrs. McKinney testified that she had drawn a revolver to protect herself. She said the gun discharged when her husband pounced on her during the quarrel last Oct. 26 in front of a West Side service station.

Nisei Promoted To Brigadier

HONOLULU (AP) — The United States had been at war more than a year and to the young lieutenant it seemed he might never be called to active duty. There was even the possibility that he might be treated like an enemy.

Today he wears the single star of a brigadier general — the only American of Japanese ancestry to rise to such a rank.

As brigadier, Francis A. Takemoto — a 52-year-old school principal — commands three battalions of the Hawaii National Guard. There are 1,800 men under his command.

Twenty years ago Takemoto waited day after day to receive the call to duty. He had been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps while a student at Santa Barbara State College in California in 1935.

Around him, on the islands of Hawaii, there were cries to herd all Japanese into relocation camps on the U.S. mainland. Each person of Japanese ancestry was looked upon with great suspicion.

One day in 1943, a military policeman appeared at Takemoto's home. The MP asked why hadn't he reported for duty?

It turned out that the message activating reserve officers took a long time getting from Pacific Army headquarters in Honolulu to Hilo — some 200 miles away.

Takemoto was one of approximately 1,300 men sent to Camp Shelby, Miss., for training and later to Europe with the 100th Infantry Battalion of the famed 442nd "Go for Broke" Regiment, which went into action at Anzio beach in Italy.

These men went to war to prove a point — that they were first and above all, Americans. They emerged from combat as the most decorated group in the entire U.S. Army.

After a day in his office at a Honolulu elementary school near Pearl Harbor, the general dons a uniform with a silver and blue combat infantryman's badge, and the multicolored ribbon.

Before dinner snack: marinate cooked shrimp (after shell and deveining) in olive oil and lemon juice, adding a cut clove or two of garlic. Remove the shrimp from the marinade just before serving and offer them with cocktail picks for tidy eating.

HTA Pace Set For June 16 At Scioto Oval

Charles D. Hill, president of Scioto Downs, today disclosed that Scioto Downs will have the 1964 HTA Pace on June 16.

Racing for a purse of $10,000, the Scioto Downs leg of the HTA pace is expected to attract the finest 4-year-old pacers in the country. Each time the HTA Pace has appeared at Scioto Downs in the past, a new season record or a world record has been established.

Adios Butler set a new world record in the first HTA Pace in 1960 when he breezed to a mile in 1:59 4-5 in the rain. Sampson Direct posted the fastest mile of the series in 1961 with a winning time of 2:00 1-5. The brilliant Henry T. Adios set a new world record in 1962 with a dazzling mile in 1:58, and Henry J. reined by Billy Houghton once again posted the fastest mile of the series in 1963 with a sparkling performance in 1:59 2-5.

The HTA Series Committee also awarded the Mid-America Racing Association the third leg of the 1964 HTA Trot. MARA will stage the $10,000 HTA Trot at Scioto Downs on August 7th. Scioto Downs can also boast of a world record in the HTA Trotting series, when Merrie Duke trotted in 1:59 4-5 in the 1961 event.

Burchwell Paces Win With 25-Point Effort

Centralia spotted Unioto a six-point lead last night and then fought back to down the hosting Shermans, 51-46, in a Ross County League tilt.

The score was 15-9 at the end of the first period with Unioto on top. By halftime the Bulldogs had fought back to gain a two-point margin. But the score was tied, 39-39, as the last quarter began.

Austin was the only other Centralia man to hit double figures. He scored 11. High for Unioto was Winton with 11 points.

THE BULLDOGS won at the charity stripe where they hit 21 of 38 attempts. The losers could do no better than eight of 21 at the free throw lane.

The Bulldogs are 12-4 overall. Tonight they host Laurelville and Friday they finish the regular season at Frankfort.

The Centralia reserves lost the preliminary tilt by a one point margin, 40-39.

Cleveland Shuns Kentucky Invite

CLEVELAND (AP)—General Manager Gabe Paul of the Cleveland Indians, responding to an invitation to transfer the Tribe to Kentucky, says the Indians have no intention of moving anywhere.

The offer came Friday via a telegram from James W. Brown, director of the Kentucky Exposition Center in Louisville. He apparently misinterpreted a story in which Paul was quoted as saying he didn't think the Indians' directors "can be called on forever to be involved in an unprofitable operation."

Paul's answering wire informed Brown that the Indians are not considering a move. "We have a goal this year, and it is to sell our wonderful product to the fans of our area and I am sure they will respond," said Paul.

Logan Elm Wins County Cage Title

Logan Elm walked off with the Pickaway County League basketball title last night, defeating Darby, 69-47, in the final game of loop play on the Trojans court.

The Braves rolled to an eight point lead at the end of the first quarter and were never threatened after that. By halftime they were on top 40-24 and by the final period had extended the margin to a 62-39 count.

This marks the final year for Pickaway County League competition. Next year the four schools in the Westfall District will occupy a new building at Pherson, located west of Circleville on Route 56.

Darby High School has only one game remaining in the final Scioto Valley Conference tilt of the year. Paint Valley has already won the conference with a 4-0 record. Logan Elm is currently in second place.

GARY HARDMAN paced the winning Logan Elm attack, sinking seven field goals and a single foul shot. Jeff Lutz tallied 14 on five field goals and four fouls while Raymond Jones canned five of seven attempts from the field in the last half along with one foul shot for 11 points.

Game honors went to Danny Bowen, Darby's high scoring forward. He hit nine shots from the field and tallied four at the charity stripe for 22. The other half of the Darby scoring duo, Dave Rowland, was held to nine points.

From the field Darby hit 17 of 57 attempts for an average of 30 per cent. The Braves hit 28 of 59 for a 48 per cent mark.

Bullets Bump Into Red-Hot Robby, Crew

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Baltimore Bullets were enjoying their winning streak so much, Coach Bob Leonard said, that they couldn't wait to get out on the floor.

The Bullets, though, should have stayed in the dressing room Friday night. They wouldn't have run into Oscar Robertson and his Cincinnati teammates.

The Royals, with Robertson scoring 35 points, whipped Baltimore 118-106 halting the Bullets' six-game winning streak in the National Basketball Association.

Boston snapped a two-game losing streak with a 114-97 victory over Philadelphia in the over NBA game.

The Bullets threatened Cincinnati in the third period, cutting the Royals' margin to 68-63. But Robertson and Wayne Embry sparked a Cincinnati spurt that buried the Bullets.

Robertson scored 13 of his 35 points in the third quarter while Embry tallied 12 of his 20.

Bill Russell and Tom Heinsohn brought Boston from behind in the second quarter against Philadelphia. Russell's three-point play tied the game 48-48, and Heinsohn helped put the Celtics ahead 53-48 at the half.

Williamsport Posts 98-44 Cage Win

The Williamsport Deers romped to a 98-44 win at Ohio Deaf last night behind a balanced scoring attack.

Don Cook Nick Williams and Larry Beard all scored better than 20 points for the winners. Cook and Williams each notched 23, while Beard scored 22.

All but two of Williams' markers came in the first half. Beard, who sat out the initial two periods, scored all of his in the second half.

Rick Fenstermaker did not dress for the Deers. He injured his knee a week ago. However Glen Chester, Williamsport coach, reported Fenstermaker probably will be ready for tonight's game at Teays Valley.

THE DEERS took 88 shots, connecting on 38 of their attempts from the field. At the charity stripe they hit 22 of 35. They controlled the boards, pulling down a total of 50 rebounds.

Both teams alternate between a man-to-man and a zone defense during the tilt.

The Williamsport reserves took their end of the double header, 43-24.

Circleville Falls, 71-64 In SCO Tilt at Greenfield

By DAVID AMEY

The Circleville High School basketball squad dropped another contest last night — its thirteenth in fourteen tries — to host team, Greenfield McClain, 71-64.

The loss plunged the CHS Tigers deeper into the SCOLL cellar, while the victory aided Greenfield in evening their league record at 5-5. Two of the McClain wins have come at the expense of the Tigers. The first loss was a 60-52 decision on the CHS hardwood.

Circleville's loss was compounded as starting guard Ronnie Seward sprained his ankle early in the second period and had to leave the game.

Injuries likewise hurt the Greenfield group. Starting center Tom Doyle didn't even dress because of illness. Doyle had 12 points against the Tigers in their initial tilt and sparked McClain's defense.

BAD FIELD goal shooting plagued the Tigers for three quarters. The local charges connected for a 30 per cent accuracy in the first period. But a whopping 62 per cent in the second quarter kept them in the game.

Wildcats Fall To Piketon In 86-60 Tilt

Jackson Jayvees Pick Up 13th Win in 14 Games This Season

The Jackson Wildcats committed 31 turnovers last night as they fell to visiting Piketon, 86-60.

The visitors effectively used a zone press to force the Wildcats into making the bobbles. At the end of the first quarter the visitors led 22-10.

At halftime they had built up a 44-26 edge and as the final period began the Red Streaks led, 65-39. Jackson scored 21 points in the final period but Piketon came up with 23.

Bruce List hit 10 field goals and four charity tosses for a total of 24 points to tie for game honors with Ward of Piketon. The Red Streak Ace canned nine field goals and six foul shots. He got ample support from Phipps with 22 and Rittemour with 17.

A TOTAL of 18 personals were called against the Wildcats as Dwight Whaley and Ed Martindale both left the game via the foul route.

Martindale, who injured his ankle earlier in the week, saw limited action.

In the reserve game, the host school came up with a 41-21 win over Piketon. Meredith O'Dell paced the Wildcat jayvee unit with 15 markers. The Jackson Reserves have lost only to Logan Elm in 14 starts.

Friday the Wildcats host Ohio Deaf. Next Saturday they play Southeastern of Ross County.

John Ritch of Arlington, Va., is the tallest basketball player on the Army team. He is 6-foot-7.

The third period showed the Tigers connecting on 33 per cent and the final canto had them with 29 per cent from the floor. For the entire tilt, CHS tried 63 shots and made 25 good for 33.7 per cent.

Circleville started slowly, but fortunately, so did Greenfield. The local Tigers led after the first eight minutes, 13-12. This was followed by CHS's extra hot second period. At intermission, Circleville had amassed a 35-30 edge.

Both teams exchanged goals freely at the start of the third period. But Greenfield caught fire toward the end of the eight minutes, tied the Tigers and then headed them 51-47 as the fourth quarter got under way.

John Thomas hit two straight jump shots to open the period and the Roundtowners found themselves tied again, 51-51. But John King, McClain forward, spoiled the fun when he sank a free throw seconds later to give the host quintet the lead once again.

The CHS cagers were not content with this, however, and the Tiger offense opened a slim lane through the McClain defense. Dave Bass slipped in for a lay-up. His bucket put Circleville on top for the last time, 55-54. Greenfield added another two buckets and forged ahead to a 58-55 advantage.

FROM THIS point—approximately 4:30 left to play — the Tigers never again challenged Greenfield for the lead.

As a team, Circleville made 22 assists, committed 16 turnovers and fashioned 10 recoveries. The Tigers grabbed 33 rebounds with John Thomas pacing the pack, as he swiped 10 off the boards.

Thomas also led the Tigers in scoring. He made seven field goals and six foul shots for 20 points.

Other CHS starters were Charlie Lewis, Dick Butz, Seward and Chet Iery. Iery hit four points. Seward had two and Butz three to round out scoring for the starting members.

Tom Smith hit for 18 points on eight field goals and two fouls. Dave Bass played most of the second half in place of Seward. He recorded 10 points on three field goals and 4 fouls. Tom Tootle played in the last period and managed seven points.

John King led the tenacious

McClain offense. The 6-2" senior hit eight field goals and three fouls for 21 points. Jim Garrison hit for 13. Ralph Nooks carded 12, and both George DeHaas and Don Deitrich added 10.

The Circleville reserves won the preliminary contest, 55-47. The little Bengals held a 18-7 first quarter lead, then saw the host jayvee unit close to 27-21 at halftime.

Little Jim Diltz, recovered from a bout with the mumps, paced the Tiger attack with 19 points on seven field goals and five foul shots. Tim Stonerock added 13 for the little Tigers.

High for the host school was John Kerns with 15 while Tom Beatty scored 14.

Rounding out the Circleville scoring, Howard Dade tallied nine, Dave Iery and Tim Adams notched six and Jeff Monroe had two.

The Tiger reserves have won seven games and lost eight during the season.

Friday Circleville hosts Hillsboro. A game originally scheduled next Saturday with Franklin Heights has been postponed. A date will be set following the Class AA district tourney drawing.

HTA Pace Set For June 16 At Scioto Oval

Charles D. Hill, president of Scioto Downs, today disclosed that Scioto Downs will have the 1964 HTA Pace on June 16.

Racing for a purse of $10,000, the Scioto Downs leg of the HTA pace is expected to attract the finest 4-year-old pacers in the country. Each time the HTA Pace has appeared at Scioto Downs in the past, a new season record or a world record has been established.

Adios Butler set a new world record in the first HTA Pace in 1960 when he breezed to a mile in 1:59 4-5 in the rain. Sampson Direct posted the fastest mile of the series in 1961 with a winning time of 2:00 1-5.

The brilliant Henry T. Adios set a new world record in 1962 with a dazzling mile in 1:58, and Henry J. reined by Billy Houghton once again posted the fastest mile of the series in 1963 with a sparkling performance in 1:59 2-5.

The HTA Series Committee also awarded the Mid-America Racing Association the third leg of the 1964 HTA Trot. MARA will stage the $10,000 HTA Trot at Scioto Downs on August 7th.

Scioto Downs can also boast of a world record in the HTA Trotting series, when Merrie Duke trotted in 1:59 4-5 in the 1961 event.

The Royals, with Robertson scoring 35 points, whipped Baltimore 118-106 halting the Bullets' six-game winning streak in the National Basketball Association.

Boston snapped a two-game losing streak with a 114-97 victory over Philadelphia in the over NBA game.

The Bullets threatened Cincinnati in the third period, cutting the Royals' margin to 68-63. But Robertson and Wayne Embry sparked a Cincinnati spurt that buried the Bullets.

Robertson scored 13 of his 35 points in the third quarter while Embry tallied 12 of his 20.

Bill Russell and Tom Heinsohn brought Boston behind in the second quarter against Philadelphia. Russell's three-point play tied the game 48-48, and Heinsohn helped put the Celtics ahead 53-48 at the half.

Bill Cullen, former Wake Forest athlete, coaches the Army squash team at West Point.

Williamsport Posts 98-44 Cage Win

The Williamsport Deers romped to a 98-44 win at Ohio Deaf last night behind a balanced scoring attack.

Don Cook Nick Williams and Larry Beard all scored better than 20 points for the winners. Cook and Williams each notched 23, while Beard scored 22.

All but two of Williams' markers came in the first half. Beard, who sat out the initial two periods, scored all of his in the second half.

Rick Fenstermaker did not dress for the Deers. He injured his knee a week ago. However Glen Chester, Williamsport coach, reported Fenstermaker probably will be ready for tonight's game at Teays Valley.

THE DEERS took 88 shots, connecting on 38 of their attempts from the field. At the charity stripe they hit 22 of 35. They controlled the boards, pulling down a total of 50 rebounds.

Both teams alternate between a man-to-man and a zone defense during the tilt.

The Williamsport reserves took their end of the double header, 43-24.

Friday Williamsport will travel to Berne Union for a game.

7 Challenge Stake Entries Locally Owned

Seven of the record breaking 412 entries in the Scioto Downs Challenge Stakes Number Three, are from Circleville.

Challenge Stakes Number Three, scheduled to be raced during the 1964 racing season at Scioto Downs beginning May 29, will card the 2 year-old Pace on July 10, for an estimated purse of $9,500, and the 2 year-old Trot on July 17, for an estimated purse of $8,500.

Of the seven Circleville eligibles, three were sired by winners of the Little Brown Jug.

Mrs. Frank Bowling of Route 2 entered Turbulent Way, a brown daughter of 1957 Jug winner Torpid.

George Van Camp of 307 Oakwood Place has an outstanding hopeful in Bullet Van, a breezy bay son of 1960 Jug victor Bullet Hanover. Marilla and Albert Kerns of 1017 Mulberry Road nominated Mar Jun E, a daughter of Keystone who won the '53 Jug.

Mrs. George Van Camp nominated a trotter and a pacer in Virgie's Phone, a chancey brown son of Galophone, and Steam'n' Lady, a filly sired by the great Steam'n' Demon.

Emmett Ebenhack of Route 2 has entered his 2-year-old pacer Dick Frisco. William Shelton of Route 3, and Ralph Stir, Jr., of Route 2, Ashville are the joint owners of Challenge Stakes trotting eligible Astronaut Pilot, a bay son of Air Pilot.

The seven Circleville eligibles will join the 224 pacers and 188 trotters in a try for the sterling silver trophy.

Circleville Falls, 71-64 In SCO Tilt at Greenfield

By DAVID AMEY

The Circleville High School basketball squad dropped another contest last night — its thirteenth in fourteen tries — to host team, Greenfield McClain, 71-64.

The loss plunged the CHS Tigers deeper into the SCOL cellar, while the victory aided Greenfield in evening their league record at 5-5. Two of the McClain wins have come at the expense of the Tigers.

The first loss was a 60-52 decision on the CHS hardwood.

Circleville's loss was compounded as starting guard Ronnie Seward sprained his ankle early in the second period and had to leave the game.

Injuries likewise hurt the Greenfield group. Starting center Tom Doyle didn't even dress because of illness. Doyle had 12 points against the Tigers in their initial tilt and sparked McClain's defense.

BAD FIELD goal shooting plagued the Tigers for three quarters. The local charges connected for a 30 per cent accuracy in the first period. But a whopping 62 per cent in the second quarter kept them in the game.

Both teams exchanged goals freely at the start of the third period. But Greenfield caught fire toward the end of the eight minutes, tied the Tigers and then headed them 51-47 as the fourth quarter got under way.

John Thomas hit two straight jump shots to open the period and the Roundtowners found themselves tied again, 51-51. But John King, McClain forward, spoiled the fun when he sank a free throw seconds later to give the host quintet the lead once again.

The CHS cagers were not content with this, however, and the Tiger offense opened a slim lane through the McClain defense. Dave Bass slipped in for a lay-up. His bucket put Circleville on top for the last time, 55-54. Greenfield added another two buckets and forged ahead to a 58-55 advantage.

Wildcats Fall To Piketon In 86-60 Tilt

Jackson Jayvees Pick Up 13th Win in 14 Games This Season

The Jackson Wildcats committed 31 turnovers last night as they fell to visiting Piketon, 86-60.

The visitors effectively used a zone press to force the Wildcats into making the bobbles. At the end of the first quarter the visitors led 22-10.

At halftime they had built up a 44-26 edge and as the final period began the Red Streaks led, 65-39. Jackson scored 21 points in the final period but Piketon came up with 23.

Bruce List hit 10 field goals and four charity tosses for a total of 24 points to tie for game honors with Ward of Piketon. The Red Streak Ace canned nine field goals and six foul shots. He got ample support from Phipps with 22 and Rittenour with 17.

A TOTAL of 18 persons were called against the Wildcats as Dwight Whaley and Ed Martindale both left the game via the foul route.

Martindale, who injured his ankle earlier in the week, saw a limited action.

In the reserve game, the host school came up with a 41-21 win over Piketon. Meredith O'Dell paced the Wildcat jayvee unit with 15 markers. The Jackson Reserves have lost only to Logan Elm in 14 starts.

Friday the Wildcats host Ohio Deaf. Next Saturday they play Southeastern of Ross County.

The third period showed the McClain reserves were within two points, 37-35. But the tigers scored 18 in the final period to 12 for the losers.

Little Jim Diltz, recovered from a bout with the mumps, paced the Tiger attack with 19 points on seven field goals and five foul shots. Tim Stonerock added 13 for the little Tigers.

High for the host school was John Kerns with 15 while Tom Beatty scored 14.

Rounding out the Circleville scoring, Howard Dade tallied nine, Dave Iery and Tim Adams notched six and Jeff Monroe had two.

The Tiger reserves have won seven games and lost eight during the season.

Friday Circleville hosts Hillsboro. A game originally scheduled next Saturday with Franklin Heights has been postponed. A date will be set following the Class AA district tourney drawing.

Cleveland Shuns Kentucky Invite

CLEVELAND (AP)—General Manager Gabe Paul of the Cleveland Indians, responding to an invitation to transfer the Tribe to Kentucky, says the Indians have no intention of moving anywhere.

The offer came Friday via a telegram from James W. Brownitt of the Kentucky Exposition Center in Louisville. He apparently misinterpreted a story in which Paul was quoted as saying he didn't think the Indians' directors "can be called on forever to be involved in an unprofitable operation."

Paul's answering wire informed Brownitt that the Indians are not considering a move. "We have a goal this year, and it is to sell our wonderful product to the fans of our area and I am sure they will respond," said Paul.

100 Pct. Shooting Fails To Net Win

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—The fans who attended the semifinals of the Madison County Basketball Tournament didn't see much action although they saw some fancy shooting.

Sparkman High School made 100 per cent of its field goal attempts Friday night but lost. New Hope made 75 per cent of its shots.

Sparkman employed stalling tactics from the start of the game, waiting more than seven minutes between shots.

The score? New Hope 10, Sparkman 5.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Almost
any morning Bob Crane can be seen dashing across the intersection of Sunset and Gower, enroute from one job to another.
From 6 to 10 a. m. he operates
one of the most talked - about Hollywood radio shows, a combination of music, interviews and wackiness on the CBS station, KNX.
Then he races to Screen Gems
to assume his role as Dr. Dave
Kelsey on "The Donna Reed Show." This season he became a regular on the television comedy.
He isn't limiting himself. Coming up: movies for Jerry Lewis
and Walt Disney.
Bob started as a drummer in his home town, Stanford, Conn.
Always the clown, he moved into radio in Bridgeport. He was hoping to hit the big time in New York, but the call came from the West Coast.
Crane's KNX show soon attracted a vast and loyal following. For eight years he has been firing wild and sometimes pointed questions at celebrities, and most of them live it.
"There have been exceptions,
but very few," Crane said.
"Once I started tossing quips at Shelley Berman and he got more and more incensed. Finally, during a commercial, he exploded, 'I didn't come here to be a straight man,' and walked out."
"On the other hand, a star like Bette Davis will be off and running from the moment we start talking. Another great one was Jonathan Winters. He held back the first time he was on because he didn't realize how far I went. Then he asked to come back again and he was out of this world."
Although radio paid him an estimated $70,000 a year, Crane was not content. He sought comedy leads in little theater plays and drew good reviews. He was ready when the call came for an important role in a "Dick Van Dyke Show." That led to the "Donna Reed Show."
"I look at the things that Dick Van Dyke and Danny Kaye do on television, and I think: Maybe I could do that. And I never miss a Jack Lemmon picture."

First baseman Orlando Cepeda of the San Francisco Giants made 21 errors last season to finish last in fielding among the National League first sack-ers.

stone facing that we have seen for quite some time.

Views on TV-Radio

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Almost
any morning Bob Crane can be seen dashing across the intersection of Sunset and Gower, en
route from one job to another.

From 6 to 10 a. m. he operates
one of the most talked - about Hollywood radio shows, a combination of music, interviews
and wackiness on the CBS station, KNX.

Then he races to Screen Gems
to assume his role as Dr. Dave
Kelsey on "The Donna Reed Show." This season he became a regular on the television comedy.

He isn't limiting himself. Coming up: movies for Jerry Lewis
and Walt Disney.

Bob started as a drummer in his home town, Stanford, Conn.
Always the clown, he moved into radio in Bridgeport. He was hoping to hit the big time in New York, but the call came from the West Coast.

Crane's KNX show soon attracted a vast and loyal following. For eight years he has been firing wild and sometimes pointed questions at celebrities, and
most of them live it.

"There have been exceptions,
but very few," Crane said.

"Once I started tossing quips at Shelley Berman and he got more and more incensed. Finally, during a commercial, he exploded, "I didn't come here to be a straight man," and walked
out.

"On the other hand, a star
like Bette Davis will be off and
running from the moment we start talking. Another great one
was Jonathan Winters. He held

Russian Gal Favored for Third Medal

Speed Skater Wins Pair in Olympic Meet

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP)—An attractive blonde Russian skater, Lidia Skoblikova, is busy collecting gold medals at the ninth winter Olympics.

So far she is the only multiple winner in the Games.

She took the 1,500 meters women's speed skating title Friday in the record Olympic time of 2:22.6.

Lidia, 24 and married, captured the 500 meters gold medal on Wednesday. She set an Olympic record then, too—45 seconds flat.

She adds these medals to an already impressive display of gold and silverware. She became world champion at all four speed-skating distances in Tokyo last year and has two gold medals from the 1960 Olympics for the 1,500 meters and 3,000 meters.

And she entered today's 1,000 meters speed skating the heavy favorite.

In the 1,500 meters, Kaija Mustonen of Finland took the bronze medal in 2:25.5 and Bertha Kolokoltseva of Russia the silver in 2:27.1.

Norway's national hero, 27-year-old ski jumper Toran Engan, was dethroned by 32-year-old Veikko Kankkonen of Finland in the 70 meters ski jump Friday.

Kankkonen won the first gold medal ever awarded at the Olympics for the 70-meter jump. In doing so, he also captured Engan's world title.

Kankkonen had the unenvying ordeal of jumping last of 54 entrants. The Finnish physical training instructor went 259 feet, 2 inches and collected most points for both distance and style with his dramatic last jump.

Kankkonen finished with 229.90 points. Engan had to be content with a silver medal for 226.30 points, and Torgeir Brandtzaeg, also Norwegian, won the bronze with 222.90 points.

Jumping on the 90-meter jump takes place on the last day of the Games, Feb. 9.

Britain, which has not won a Winter Olympics medal since 1952, made a good start in Friday's two-man bobsled runs. The British pair, Tony Nash and Robin Dixon, had the best total time of 2:10.84.

They were closely followed by the two Italian teams, Sergio Zaedini and Romano Bonagura, and Eugenio Monti and Sergio Siorpaes.

The medals are awarded for the best total time of four runs. The final two runs were slated for today.

Sjoukje Dijkstra, the 22-year-old Dutch ice princess, won the world title the last two years, took a commanding lead in the women's figure skating after completion of the five compulsory figures.

Miss Dijkstra had 9.5 ordinals and 1,113.2 points. Second was Austria's Regine Heitzer with 20 ordinals and 1,074.8 points with Canadian champion Petra Burka third with 27.5 ordinals and 1,050.2 points.

All three American entrants were in the first 10 but still virtually out of contention.

Christine Haigler of Colorado Springs, Colo., was sixth with 53 ordinals and 1,000.9 points; 15-year-old U.S. champion Peggy Fleming of Pasadena, Calif., eighth with 81 and 968.6 and Albertina Noyes of Arlington, Mass., ninth with 88 and 951.3. The competition will be completed with free skating on Sunday.

Jim Carroll, a guard from Atlanta, Ga., will captain the Notre Dame football team next fall.

Notre Dame and the Air Force Academy will play their first football game at Colorado Springs, Colo., next Oct. 10.

Alston Eyes Aid For Hill Staff

By WALTER ALSTON
LOS ANGELES DODGERS

DARTTOWN, Ohio (AP)—The Dodgers won the 1963 National League pennant and the World Series on pitching. I'm hoping we can give the mound crew a little more help this year at the plate.

WALTER ALSTON

And, before we get away from pitching, I'd like to say we're hoping to improve there. No, you can't expect the top three—Sandy Koufax, Don Drysdale and Johnny Podres—and our ace reliever Ron Perranoski to do much better but it's in the depth of the staff that I'm concerned.

I'd like to make a reliever out of Bob Miller. He'd give us good protection out there in the bullpen with Perranoski and, down the stretch last year, he showed he likes that sort of work. He was one of our strongest pitchers in August and September and may be a relief star in the making.

But before we can enjoy that luxury we've got to find other starters. Pete Richert, Nick Willitte, Joe Moeller, Phil Ortega, Dick Calmus and Larry Sherry all will be given a shot at front line duty during spring training and perhaps one or two of them will join Sandy, Don and Johnny in the regular rotation. Let's hope so.

One move I plan in an attempt to add to our club's offensive strength is to give Frank Howard a chance to play every day. He'll have to play his way off the field. Frank was hampered by a sore arm last year and would have played more often if physically able. But if things go according to plan, he will get that chance in 1964.

I'm really hoping to forget about the two-platoon as far as the outfield is concerned. I'd like to play it all the way with Tommy Davis in left, Willie Davis in center and Howard in right. That's the way it will be if the other pieces fall into place. Willie showed us a fine bat down the stretch and Tommy once again was batting champion of the league. Early season injuries cost him a shot at the RBI title. It is in the infield where some maneuvering is likely. By now everyone is getting used to the story about Jim Gilliam becoming a utility man. Actually, after the great year he had, it isn't likely he's ready for that role, even yet. But we probably could help Jim by moving him to third.

That would leave second for either Dick Tracewski, who showed a fine hand there in the World Series, and Pee Wee Oliver, who hit .321 at Spokane after his early Dodger try. Both of these boys could spell Maury Wills at short, too, although we're hoping Maury won't run into the injuries which hampered him a great deal last year.

With Bill Skowron gone, Ron Fairly would seem to have a clear shot at first but we'll also take a look at third baseman Ken McMullen with a first baseman's mitt. Again, we'd be looking for right-handed punch.

U.S. Denies Panama's Charge of 'Aggression'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Denying Panama's charges of aggression, the United States told the Organization of American States an investigation would show the Panamanian government was "inciting the people to attack and violence" in the canal dispute.

Mobs "infiltrated and led by extremists, including persons trained in Communist countries" assaulted the U.S. controlled Canal Zone, Ellsworth Bunker, new U.S. ambassador to the OAS, told the hemisphere organization Friday.

U.S. forces "never attempted to enter Panama but acted only to protect the lives and property of its citizens," he said. "No small portion of the Panamanian casualties were caused by the Panamanians themselves."

Panama's charged of aggression by the United States, presented to the OAS by Panamanian Ambassador Miguel Moreno, grew out of the rioting and fighting along the Canal Zone's borders Jan. 9 and 10.

Moreno, speaking before Ellsworth, said the mob violence was spontaneous, caused by anger at Americans who prevented the flying of Panama's flag in "their nation's territory" and due to inept action by U.S. authorities.

Panama called for Friday's meeting of the OAS council under terms of the Rio de Janeiro treaty which provides that each of the hemisphere's Republics will help another threatened by aggression.

Viet Nam, Korea, Germany Labeled as Powder Kegs

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—War, the threat of war and acute political tensions have plagued the divided nations of Viet Nam, Korea and Germany. All are powder kegs in the world struggle between Communist and non-Communist forces.

They are heritages of war, mirroring the division between East and West. Political unrest, including bloody coups, have flared in South Korea and South Viet Nam, where forces backed by the West have been struggling to establish themselves. Communist rule prevails in North Korea and North Viet Nam.

On the other side of the world West Germany has achieved unprecedented prosperity and emerged as a powerful force in the Western Alliance under a democratic system. East Germany is relatively poor and kept under tight Communist control — with the help of Soviet might.

How did Viet Nam, Korea and Germany become divided?

Viet Nam was divided at the 17th Parallel under an agreement reached at a 19-nation conference in Geneva in 1954 after the French defeat in Indochina. Unlike the situation in South Korea, a strong Communist guerrilla force controlled much of the countryside.

One of the decisions reached at the 1945 Potsdam conference by the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union was to make the 38th Parallel the dividing line between U.S. and Soviet occupation forces in Korea. Efforts to reach agreement on unification of Korea collapsed and in May 1948, the rival regimes were established. War broke out when North Korea invaded South Korea on June 25, 1950.

Unification of Korea has been under debate at the United Nations for years. Western insistence upon free elections as a condition for unification has met with solid Communist opposition. Chances of agreement remain dim.

Germany was divided into four occupation zones after World War II, governed by the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union. Berlin was similarly divided, within the Soviet zone.

The four powers couldn't agree on a peace treaty for all of Germany. The West German Republic was born in May 1949, and granted almost complete independence. The Soviet Union declared East Germany a sovereign state in 1955—but it has never won recognition as such from the West.

Vietnamese

At the reception Khanh exchanged pleasantries with French Charge d'Affaires George Perruche and told him: "You are welcome with us today, but I hope all the world is aware of the North Vietnamese aggression."

South Viet Nam's deposed premier, Nguyen Ngoc Tho, made a surprise appearance at the reception. Khanh said he would keep Tho in office until a new government is formed.

Tho, who has been in government continuously for 30 years, said he expects to return to private life in a week to 10 days.

Khanh said he will retain temporarily all ministers in a caretaker government except the generals arrested during the coup Wednesday for allegedly conspiring with the French to neutralize the country.

Khanh said the new regime will be "a government of national union, but we do not yet know what form it will take. It will be necessary to move slowly but surely in creating a new government."

He made it plain to the diplomats he was in charge. He said he would leave Saigon Monday for a tour of military units in the countryside as the first step in taking personal command of the war effort against the Viet Cong guerrillas.

After the other diplomats had left U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge remained behind and was overheard advising Khanh to seek popular support from his people.

"You should deliver a 'fire-side chat' as soon as possible," Lodge said. "And get it printed, distribute it as movies and so on, as soon as possible."

U.S. Denies Panama's Charge of 'Aggression'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Denying Panama's charges of aggression, the United States told the Organization of American States an investigation would show the Panamanian government was "inciting the people to attack and violence" in the canal dispute.

Mobs "infiltrated and led by extremists, including persons trained in Communist countries" assaulted the U.S. controlled Canal Zone, Ellsworth Bunker, new U.S. ambassador to the OAS, told the hemisphere organization Friday.

U.S. forces "never attempted to enter Panama but acted only to protect the lives and property of its citizens," he said. "No small portion of the Panamanian casualties were caused by the Panamanians themselves."

Panama's charged of aggression by the United States, presented to the OAS by Panamanian Ambassador Miguel Moreno, grew out of the rioting and fighting along the Canal Zone's borders Jan. 9 and 10.

Moreno, speaking before Ellsworth, said the mob violence was spontaneous, caused by anger at Americans who prevented the flying of Panama's flag in "their nation's territory" and due to inept action by U.S. authorities.

Panama called for Friday's meeting of the OAS council under terms of the Rio de Janeiro treaty which provides that each of the hemisphere's Republics will help another threatened by aggression.

10 Departments At Conference

Ten departments were represented at the Southeastern Ohio Police Conference here yesterday.

Capt. Robert Gloeckner of the Columbus Police Department conducted a morning classroom session on "Techniques of Interrogation."

A firing exercise, originally scheduled in the afternoon on Route 56, was postponed due to muddy field conditions. This phase of the program will be re-scheduled at a later date.

The Pickaway County Sheriff's Department is investigating a burglary committed last night at Lakeside Supply, located at Hargus Lake.

An undetermined quantity of fishing equipment was taken, as well as a small amount of small change. The investigation is being conducted by Deputy Gene Kerns.

Viet Nam, Korea, Germany Labeled as Powder Kegs

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—War, the threat of war and acute political tensions have plagued the divided nations of Viet Nam, Korea and Germany. All are powder kegs in the world struggle between Communist and non-Communist forces.

They are heritages of war, mirroring the division between East and West.

Political unrest, including bloody coups, have flared in South Korea and South Viet Nam, where forces backed by the West have been struggling to establish themselves. Communist rule prevails in North Korea and North Viet Nam.

On the other side of the world West Germany has achieved unprecedented prosperity and emerged as a powerful force in the Western Alliance under a democratic system. East Germany is relatively poor and kept under tight Communist control — with the help of Soviet might.

How did Viet Nam, Korea and Germany become divided?

Viet Nam was divided at the 17th Parallel under an agreement reached at a 19-nation conference in Geneva in 1954 after the French defeat in Indochina. Unlike the situation in South Korea, a strong Communist guerrilla force controlled much of the countryside.

One of the decisions reached

at the 1945 Potsdam conference by the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union was to make the 38th Parallel the dividing line between U.S. and Soviet occupation forces in Korea.

Efforts to reach agreement on unification of Korea collapsed and in May 1948, the rival regimes were established. War broke out when North Korea invaded South Korea on June 25, 1950.

Unification of Korea has been under debate at the United Nations for years. Western insistence upon free elections as a condition for unification has met with solid Communist opposition. Chances of agreement remain dim.

Germany was divided into four occupation zones after World War II, governed by the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union. Berlin was similarly divided, within the Soviet zone.

The four powers couldn't agree on a peace treaty for all of Germany. The West German Republic was born in May 1949, and granted almost complete independence. The Soviet Union declared East Germany a sovereign state in 1955—but it has never won recognition as such from the West.

er of attempting to impose a brutalizing policy on South Viet Nam and of blatantly interfering in its affairs.

At the reception Khanh exchanged pleasantries with French Charge d'Affaires George Perruche and told him: "You are welcome with us today, but I hope all the world is aware of the North Vietnamese aggression."

South Viet Nam's deposed premier, Nguyen Ngoc Tho, made a surprise appearance at the reception. Khanh said he would keep Tho in office until a new government is formed.

Tho, who has been in government continuously for 30 years, said he expects to return to private life in a week to 10 days. Khanh said he will retain temporarily all ministers in a caretaker government except the generals arrested during the coup Wednesday for allegedly conspiring with the French to neutralize the country.

Khanh said the new regime will be "a government of national union, but we do not yet know what form it will take. It will be necessary to move slowly but surely in creating a new government."

He made it plain to the diplomats he was in charge. He said he would leave Saigon Monday for a tour of military units in the countryside as the first step in taking personal command of the war effort against the Viet Cong guerrillas.

After the other diplomats had left U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge remained behind and was overheard advising Khanh to seek popular support from his people.
